1. It is not possible to accede to the request of the applicant to expedite the hearing of this case. There are several other cases pending for hearing relating to the offence under the Prevention of Corruptiion Act which are older than the present matter. Merely because the applicant has a good case on merit cannot be the basis to expedite the hearing. That cannot be said to be a special reason to show such indulgence. Appeal be listed as per its turn if ready in all other respects.
